

THINGS TO SEE AND DO IN AND AROUND LONE PINE

---

JANUARY

- ❖ Winter bike riding in the Alabama Hills
- ❖ Visit our Museums
- ❖ Winter golfing
- ❖ Explore Manzanar National Historic Site
- ❖ Wonderful natural photo opportunity time
- ❖ Great hiking trails are open

FEBRUARY

- ❖ See the wildflowers at South end of Death Valley and Jubilee Pass
- ❖ Hike along the Owens River
- ❖ Enjoy our restaurants
- ❖ Go shopping for antiques
- ❖ Look for your favorite stars autograph or picture in our stores and restaurants

MARCH

- ❖ Southern Inyo Early Trout Opener & Derby
- ❖ Look for the wildflowers at Bradbury Wash
- ❖ Visit the Lone Pine Movie Room
- ❖ Picnic at the Park

APRIL

- ❖ High Sierra Show-N-Shine Car Show
- ❖ Manzanar Pilgrimage
- ❖ Wildflowers can be found south of Little Lake, Panamint Valley, north and south ends of Saline Valley, Salsberry Pass and Greenwater Valley
- ❖ Find the arches in the Alabama Hills

MAY

- ❖ Annual Wild Wild West Marathon rated 7th most difficult in the northern hemisphere by Marathon & Beyond Magazine
- ❖ Annual Death Valley to Mt. Whitney Bike Race - 100 mile, two day bicycle road race

JUNE

- ❖ Horseback riding in the Alabama Hills or the high mountain meadows
- ❖ Visit the Art Shops
- ❖ Go to the Lake

JULY

- ❖ Celebrate America's freedom in Independence
- ❖ Badwater-Ultra Marathon - 135 mile run from Badwater to Mt. Whitney

AUGUST

- ❖ Annual Southern Inyo Artisans Guild, Arts & Crafts Fair
- ❖ Cool off at Whitney Portal by the waterfall
- ❖ Go Fishing

SEPTEMBER

- ❖ Mt. Whitney Classic - benefit bike ride
- ❖ Go camping
- ❖ See the 1872 Earthquake fault and grave site
- ❖ Visit the Mt. Whitney Fish Hatchery

OCTOBER

- ❖ Participate in the Annual Lone Pine Film Festival
- ❖ Go see where the movies were made
- ❖ Visit the Cottonwood Charcoal Kilns

NOVEMBER

- ❖ Shop for unique gifts
- ❖ Do some star gazing
- ❖ Great rock climbing

DECEMBER

- ❖ Winter & Holiday events all month long
- ❖ Come enjoy the down home feel for the holidays
- ❖ Bike & hiking trails open